Programme Shofukan - Sunday June 14

14.30 - Kids programme: Komaneko (JP, 2006, 60 min)

Charming and funny stop motion animation film about a kitten who loves to make dolls and uses them to make her own films. Komaneko makes lots of new friends, but when one of her dolls appears to be kidnapped by a not-so-terrible snowman, she is determined to get her back!

For children aged 3 and older. Before and after the screening children will be able to create their own paper cat using origami techniques.

SOS! TOKYO METRO EXPLORERS: THE NEXT (JP, 2006, 40 min)

While searching for a hidden treasure with his friends, 10-year-old Ryuhei ends up going down a manhole into the sewers of Tokyo. To his surprise he encounters many friendly grown-ups living underground.

Based on Manga "SOS DAITOKYOTANKENTAI" by KATSUHIRO OTOMO published by KODANSHA LTD.

19.30 - Anime programme 2:

Planzet (JP, 2010, 53 min)

In 2053, six years after a brutal alien invasion of Earth, the remaining survivors organise a desperate counterattack, meant to destroy the extraterrestrial aggressor once and for all. But in order to succeed they will need to temporarily defuse the shield that is protecting the planet. Will humanity regain the stars or lose everything in the final, ultimate gamble?

LantarenVenster - Wednesday June 17

19.15 - Science Ninja Team Gatchaman: The Movie (JP, 1978, 110 min)

First film adaptation of the classic Gatchaman anime series from the seventies, which revolves around a team of five young agents, all trained in the art of jujitsu. Together they must battle the Galactors, an alien species lead by intergalactic mutant-terrorist Berg Katse. Must see for fans of the franchise, but knowledge of the series isn't required.
